CLERK: Mr. President, 125, E & R amendments had been considered and were adopted on February 12 of last year. There was an amendment offered by Senator Elmer at that time to the bill, AM0219. You'd find it in your Journals from last year. Senator Chambers had an amendment to that amendment that was adopted. I now have pending, Mr. President, the amendment as offered by Senator Elmer.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Elmer.

SENATOR ELMER: Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members, to refresh your memory LB 125 is a bill to allow an individual who is criminally prosecuted in the State of Nebraska under a law or an ordinance that is found unconstitutional to be able to apply for help in paying his costs to defend himself. That cost would be
